

DECLASSIFIED

TUESDAY
DECEMBER 21, 1954

We moved during the early morning to the warm welcome and comfort of Ellen and Jim and their apartment at 280 Park Avenue.

I lunched with Buck Crawford at the Union League Club and talked investments. Spent part of the afternoon with Ailsa and Audrey, bought a Christmas present for Jim, ~~then~~ then settled down for a long talk and good dinner. New York looked lovely, all tricked ~~and~~ and trinketed out for Christmas.

We took the nine-twenty train for Lynchburg.
